Physician Explains Who Should Take Nuxated Iron

Practical Advice on How To Help Build Up Great Strength, Energy and Endurance.

"Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a [illegible] but it [illegible] [illegible] Dr. [illegible], formerly physician [illegible] Hospital (Outdoor Dept.) New York, [illegible] County Hospital. [illegible] over and over again [illegible] the great necessity of physicians making blood examinations of their weak, anaemic, run-down patients. Thousands of persons go on [illegible] year after year suffering from physical weakness and a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their red blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood [illegible] [illegible] the body [illegible] [illegible] mill with rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind.

For want of iron you may be an old man at thirty, dull of intellect, poor in memory, nervous, irritable and all run down, while at 50 or 60 with plenty of iron in your blood you may still be young in feeling, full of life, your whole being brimming over with vim and energy.

But be sure the iron you take is organic iron [illegible] not metallic iron [illegible] Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings and is therefore an entirely different thing from Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen baked apples. It is like taking extracts of beef instead of eating pounds of beef.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It quickly helps make rich red blood, revitalize worn out exhausted nerves and give increased strength and energy. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if it does not produce satisfactory results.

OF CONCERN TO EVERY TAXPAYER.

The repaving of Crawford avenue is a matter which concerns every taxpayer in the city, not alone the owners of property abutting upon this thoroughfare. The latter will have their proportionate share of the cost to pay, but it should not be forgotten by other taxables of the city that they will eventually have to pay in the form of taxes the whole part of the cost assumed by the city. If the money for that purpose is provided by a bond issue the sinking fund to retire the bonds at maturity must come from the taxpayers pocket and also the interest, the city's only source of income except receipts of the mayor's office being that derived from taxation.

Such being the situation the cost of the proposed improvement becomes or should become a question of very lively interest to all the taxpayers whether they reside on Crawford avenue or in some remote section of the city. They ought to be concerned whether this improvement is going to cost the city $300,000, one half, one-third or one-sixth of that amount, especially when remembering that they will themselves have to pay for the retirement bonds and interest a full two-thirds of the cost.

From data in possession of the city council it has been shown that the cost will range between the extreme sums named according as repaving with brick or resurfacing with asphaltic cement is the method employed. Neither method is in experiment but the experience of cities having more and heavier traffic than passes over the streets of Connellsville has been that the resurfacing method is materially lower in first cost and by actual use has shown its ability to stand up under severe traffic conditions with practically no expense for maintenance.

The city council being in doubt as what course to make and the member feeling that they have been without expression of opinion from taxpayers, the latter have an opportunity to assist the municipal body in coming to a conclusion and incidentally save themselves a very considerable sum of money.

Interested contractors have presented their arguments which, of course have been more or less colored because of their affiliations with one method or the other, but the precise facts of the situation have not been changed by any statement however strong the prejudice of the person making it. That is to say it has not been disproven that the resurfacing method as employed in other and larger cities has cost very much less to install and almost nothing to maintain and that the service given has been satisfactory.

Council should now hear from the taxpayers, who will foot the bill—whether they are ready and eager to pay their share of $300,000 or some fractional part of that sum. Whether they are willing to have one or a few individuals dictate and control the street improvement policy of the city in behalf of their own and other interests, or insist that the people who bear the financial burden shall have something to say about it in the interests of the city as a whole.

With engaging frankness the New Freedom Standard admits that it was a lamentable error on part of the Committee of One Hundred not to engage this fearless champion of the 'people' as associate counsel in the campaign against the law breakers. No doubt the court feels the deprivation no less keenly.

"Going on the road" very often means taking the wrong road for men as well as boys.

The opportunity to be given next week to see what is made in Connellsville is certain to attract the attention of the Connellsville maids—the most interesting and highly prized of all our products.

MANY CHANGES ARE PROPOSED IN BROOKS LAW

stables also report places where liquors determined and found to be intoxicating by act of Congress are sold or kept for sale. Section 12 makes it the duty of the constable to make monthly visitations and returns of all violations and the proposed amendment makes it the duty of the officer to report any violation of the act so far as it relates to intoxicating liquors.

Section 15 of the present law relates to the punishment for selling without a license and it is held that these penalties would be unreasonable as applied to the sale of non intoxicating beverages, perhaps on much so to offend against article one, section 13 which provides: "Excessive bail shall not be required nor excessive fines imposed." The penalty is changed from a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000 and imprisonment in the county jail for not less than three months nor more than 12 months to a fine of not more than $2,000 or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or both.

The section also provides a penalty for violations of the act by a licensee, the penalty now provided being a fine of not less than $100 and for second offense of not less than $300 nor more than $1,000 and for third offense of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000 and undergo imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months nor more than 12 months. As amended the punishment would be a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment in the county jail not more than three months or both.

Section 16 of the present law regulating sales by druggists of alcohol for scientific, mechanical or medical purposes is omitted in the proposed law because the word "intoxicating liquors" has been changed to the phrase "vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors" meaning non alcoholic drinks and it is held that a provision relating to the sale of alcohol for purposes other than beverage purposes has no place in the section. The section of the present law providing that any person who shall wilfully prescribe any intoxicating liquors as a beverage to a person of known intemperate habits shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to penalties prescribed in section 15 also is omitted.

Section 17 prohibits sales of intoxicating liquors on election days and this is amended out of the act as it is held that there is no reason why non intoxicating drinks should not be sold while the polls are open.

Prohibitions against sale on Sunday to minors and to persons of known intemperate habits and certain other prohibitions in the present law have been retained with the exception of election day sales but the minimum fine for violation $50 and the minimum period of imprisonment—20 days have been omitted so that the penalty will be a fine of not more than $500 or an imprisonment of not more than 90 days with the addition that the court may impose both a fine and imprisonment within maximum specified.

Section 18 providing that houses and other places where vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors are sold unlawfully constituted a nuisance and may be abated is amended to apply also to liquors held by act of Congress to be intoxicating.

Three new sections including the prohibition sections are added. The first section 20 provides that after the passage of the act any person who shall manufacture, sell, offer for sale, furnish, transport, import, export or possess any intoxicating liquor within the state for beverage purposes, except as hereafter provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $5,000 or undergo an imprisonment of not more than three years or both at the discretion of the court.

Section 21, a new section, provides that proof of the manufacture, sale, transportation or other violations specified in section 20 shall raise a presumption that the same was for beverage purposes and the burden of proving the contrary shall rest upon the accused. This presumption however is not to apply to medicines or anything unfit for beverage purposes or to extracts ordinarily used for culinary purposes. It added that this act shall not apply to such extracts when intended to be used for flavoring anything which when so flavored shall not violate the provisions of the act.

Section 22 holds that it shall not be unlawful to possess intoxicating liquor in one's private dwelling provided it is only for the personal consumption of the owner and his family and of his bona fide guest when entertained by him, which entertainment is not to be deemed an unlawful furnishing. The term "private dwelling" it is explained is not to be construed only in its ordinary sense but to include the room or rooms used and occupied not transiently but as a residence in an apartment house, hotel or boarding house.

Section 23 provides that any premises for which a license is granted under the act shall be subject at all times to inspection by authority of any judge of the court granting the license or of the district attorney of the county or the mayor of any city in which the premises are located for the purpose of ascertaining whether any intoxicating liquor is kept on the premises, and any such liquor found thereon may be seized and used as evidence.

Section 24 provides that nothing in the act shall affect any case in which it shall appear that the crime charged was committed prior to the date of the approval of the act but the offenders may be prosecuted and punished as if this act had not been passed.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

At the Theatres

THE SOISSON.

"PEACEFUL VALLEY"—With Charles Ray in one of the best roles of his screen career, is being shown today. One of the most amusing situations in the photoplay arises when Whiskers, dangling a heavy rope around his neck, comes trotting up the aisle of a country church to his master, Hosiah Howe, who is seated beside Virginia Rand, a beautiful girl from the city. Hosiah, who had been greatly embarrassed and impressed by the presence of the pretty girl at his side, is aghast at the unexpected appearance of the dog. The congregation glares at Hosiah, but Virginia helps him make the dog comfortable between them. Charles Ray plays the part of Hosiah, while Ann May has the leading feminine role.

Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday Alice Lake will be presented in "The Greater Claim."

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE MAD MARRIAGE"—A five part Universal picture, with Carmel Myers in the leading role, is being shown today and will also be the feature attraction tomorrow. Jerry Paxton, in "The Mad Marriage," is a struggling young artist in Greenwich Village. He is interested in a girl called Bob when the story opens, but later transfers his affections to Jane Judd, a helper about the studio. Jane takes part in a society pageant for which Jerry designed the costumes, and here, acting in the role of Judith she attracts the attention of a young playwright named Christiansen. They work together secretly on a play and at a critical time Christiansen sends Jane an advance check for a thousand dollars. On the opening night of the play Jerry attends and becomes wild with jealousy as Jane and Christiansen receive the honors of authorship together.

THE ORPHEUM.

"SOMETHING DIFFERENT"—Presenting Constance Bluney, the beautiful screen star, in an attractive role is today's feature attraction. "Something Different," is the story of a New York heiress and social favorite, whose very popularity bores her. In her search for a new experience, a fresh thrill, "something different," in short, she goes to visit a former school friend in South America. She finds what she went after, and a little more besides, for she is soon in the very exciting middle of a healthy revolution, and for lending aid to the insurgents is imprisoned by the authorities. Falling in love with the general, who is her captor, adds zest to the plot, and Miss Bluney makes a very agreeable little rebel, both in love and in war.

Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday William Farnum will be seen in "The Scuttlers," a thrilling story of the sea.

A Nation-wide Stage Success
Now a Charles Ray Triumph

"Mother—I lied to you"

Stone-cold, stone-broke, despairing, disillusioned, Hosiah Howe came back to the little home in Peaceful Valley. By day he had trudged the streets of stifling cities and by night he had scanned the misty figures in inn by by-ways, peering hopefully into painted faces, searching for the little sister who thought she understood the world—the flesh—the devil!

Drama real, sheer drama! And on top of it comes a laugh that wipes back the tears just in time.

ST. VINCENT DEFEATS DUNBAR TOWNSHIP HIGH

The St Vincent college team defeated Dunbar Township High 38 18 at Leisenring last night. The college team outweighed the home outfit and in the early part of the game ran up a big lead. When the half ended the score was 11 7 but the township boys came back strong and succeeded in cutting this down.

The chief athletic activities at the high school now, for both boys and girls, are the preparations for the gymnasium exhibition to be given some time next month.

Dunbar.

DUNBAR, March 30.—The funeral Sunday of John B Senor whose sudden death caused deeper regret and more genuine sorrow than any that has occurred in this section in years was probably the largest ever held in Dunbar, the crowd embracing representatives from all over Western Pennsylvania. The services were very impressive consisting in a number of selections by the male quartet of the Methodist Episcopal church and an impressive sermon by Rev J K Wylie pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which Mr Senor was a member.

Besides the throngs that came by train and trolley about 50 automobile parties were in attendance. There is no question but that the deceased was one of the most popular persons in all of Dunbar township. So popular was he with the people that at his last election he was nominated by each party and unanimously elected tax collector. For more than 15 years he filled that position and each year increased his popularity and made him more friends. Pronounced by the commissioners the best tax collector in the county and given the same endorsement by the people of Dunbar township by the members of all political parties notwithstanding his active Democracy all are willing to inscribe to his memory the appropriate text: Well Done Good and Faithful Servant.

Among persons from a distance to attend the funeral of Mr Senor were Mrs Sadie R Keffer, Mrs Sarah R Herrington and Mrs D A Keffer, Clairton; Mr and Mrs Thomas Donahoe, Wehrum; Andrew McDowell, Windber; James Jacobs, McKeesport; Mr and Mrs Albert Cole, Continental No 2; Frank McLaughlin, Monarch; John B Graham, Leisenring; George M Strickler and John T Beatty, Vanderbilt; Harold McGee and Mr and Mrs James Russel, Uniontown; Rev D L Minerd and Dr Daniel Minerd, Connellsville; Mrs Wiley Crawford, Akron, O; Mrs Harry Culbertson, Columbus, O, and Mrs John Snyder and son Paul, Millersburg, O.

James Hardy, a widely known citizen of Hardy Hill Sunday celebrated his 82nd birthday anniversary. Quite a number of his friends remembered his anniversary and an appropriate dinner was served. Mr Hardy served a term as poor director. # The Wreckers

By FRANCIS LYNDE

Copyright by Chas Scribner's Sons

"For six months Norcross you've been mowing a pretty wide swath out here in the tall hills. You've been posing as a little tin god before the people of this state and all the while you've been knifing and slugging and black-jacking private capital and private business wherever and whenever they have happened to get in your way. Now at the end of the lane by Jupiter we've got you dead to rights—you and your d—d railroad.

"We've Got You Dead to Rights, You and Your O—d Railroad!"

"Cut out as many of the personalities as you can and come to the point,' suggested the boss quietly.

"To think I haven't any point to come to?" barked the grafter, with rising anger. I'll show you. You thought you were the only original trust-buster when you started your home of loyalty owned elevators and warehouses and coal and lumber yards and ran us out of business. But I'm here to tell you that your five-hundred little deal to rob us began to die about as soon as it was born."

"How so?" inquired the boss.

"It wasn't a month before your little local stockholders began to get together and swap stock and sell it. In a very short time the control of the whole string of local plants was in the hands of a hundred men. Today it's in the hands of less than twenty, with John Marshall at the head of them. Citizens' Storage & Warehouse is now a consolidated property and John Marshall, Henckel and I control a majority of its stock. How does that strike you?"

"It strikes me that the people must be pig-headedly interested have been exceedingly foolish to sell their birthright. But that is strictly their own business and not mine or the railroad company's."

"Well," Hatch snarled. "It's going to be both yours and the railroad company's business before you're through with it. Marlow here represents Marshall and I represent Henckel and myself. What are you going to do about those ground leases?"

Nothing at all except to insist upon its condition upon which they were granted by the railroad company.

"Meaning that you're going to try to hold us to the 6 per cent charge for handling packing, loading and transhipping?"

"Meaning just that. If you raise the price to local market price charge on the producers and merchants, the law is well formulate."

"I thought that was about where you'd land. Now listen, we're—Marshall and Henckel and I—and what we say goes as it lies. We are going to use the present C. S. & W. plants and equipment charging our own storage and handling percentages based on anything we see fit. If you pull that ground lease business on us and try to drive us out we'll fight you all the way up to the Supreme Court. If you beat us there we'll merely move over to the other side of your track to our old Red Tower houses and yards and go on doing business at the old stand."

The boss sat back in his chair and I could tell by the set of his jaw that he was refusing to be panic stricken.

"You are taking altogether too much for granted, Hatch, you," he put in mildly. "You are assuming that the courts will eventually nullify the terms of the ground leases or if they do not, that the railroad company will do nothing to save its patrons from falling into this new graft trap."

Hatch snapped his fingers. "Now you are coming to the milk in the coconut," he rapped out. "That is exactly what we're assuming. You are going to get go once for all Norcross. You are not going to fight us in the courts and neither are you going to harass us out of existence with short cuts, over charges and the thousand and one petty persecutions that you railroad buccaneers make use of to line your own pockets."

"But if we refuse to lie down and let you walk over us and our patrons—what then?" the boss inquired.

That brought the explosion. Hatch's eyes blazed and he smacked fist into palm.

"Then we'll knife you and we'll do it in a velvet finish. After so long a time we've got you where you can't sidestep. Not ross."

The boss refused to be panic-stricken; or anyhow he looked that way.

"We have heard that kind of talk many times in the past," he said. "The way to make it effective is to produce the goods."

"That's just what we're here to do," snapped the Red Tower president-to-be. "You and the Big Fellows in New York want a lot of the state railroad laws repealed. I'm intended. If you can get that thing united you can't gamble me more with your soul. Well and good. You came here six months ago and set out to manufacture public sentiment in favor of the railroad. You ran up your 'public be pleased' flag and beat the tom-tom and blew the bewgag until you got a lot of dolts and chuckleheads and easy marks to believe that you really meant it."

"Well go on."

"With all this bunking and bally-hoo you still couldn't be quite certain that you had made your point that your measures would go through the incoming legislature. After the primaries you counted noses among the candidates and found it was going to be a right squeak a d—d tight squeak. Then you did what you railroad people always do—you slipped out outlets and bought a few men—just to be on the safe side."

So it was spring at last, Hatch was musing, as of one thing that we hadn't done that the boss knew we hadn't done.

"I'm afraid you'll have to explain, Mr. Hatch," he said with a sour little smile. Then he added: "And before you make charges you know."

Hatch thumped to his feet and he was almost foaming at the mouth.

Right there is where we've got you," he shouted. "You were too conscious to put one of your own men in the field so you sent outside for your bribee. He was a stranger, and he had to have help in finding the right men to buy. Dodmon, here, was out of a job—thanks to you and your meddling—and the steering stunt of fetch good pay. Do you want any more?"

The boss shook his head.

It is a matter of complete indifference to me. I don't know in the least what you are talking about and you'll pardon me I hope if I say that it doesn't greatly interest me."

HAWAIIANS TO BE AT SOISSON FOR THREE DAYS

Coming to the Soisson theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday are Bell's famous Hawaiian consisting of a quartet of male singers and instrumentalists and a beautiful Hawaiian girl dancer, and they represent a characteristic replica of an evening in their Hawaiian home which they call Moonlight in Mohaliand. The scene opens to the plaintive strums of a steel guitar. As the curtain slowly rises the scene presented is the famous Waikiki beach with the world-renowned Moana hotel in the foreground. A typical high scene on Honolulu, soft moonlight is reflected by the rippling waters and the slowly swaying palms, looming up in over all, lend mystery and enchantment to the scene. A singer and a youth are seated under the palms dressed in the costume of the Islands. Singing is heard in the distance and three young musicians with their instruments arrive, singing their native song of friendship. The steel guitar made famous by the Hawaiians is introduced here by one of Hawaii's foremost steel guitarists. The final number is the Holden Hulu' by Princess Lei Leihoua, Hawaii's most graceful dancer. The 'Golden Hulu' was the favored and most popular dance at the Royal Palace of Honolulu during the day of King Kalikua. Princess Lei Leihoua is accompanied in this number by the combined efforts of the entire company closing the act invariably to a tremendous burst of applause.

Your skin should soon become smooth and velvety, without a single blemish on it.

Don't worry another minute. Start this simple treatment today. Go to any good drug store and ask for a small jar of Lanolated Iodine. Don't forget. You will surely be pleased with the results obtained.

The soothing, healing and antiseptic virtues of Iodine in this ointment are combined right in one vanishing cream, where they quickly absorb the poisonous, dead or diseased tissues, at the same time protecting and soothing the healthy skin.—Adv.
